

The Moss

In winter comes the moss,
It covers all the yard,
It makes the yard look green
And pleasant to be seen.
La la la la la la la la la la

It covers all the square:
It covers ev'ry-where;
It covers you and me,
It makes us feel free.
La la la la la

The green, it makes us free,
So through the air we fly;
We fly in circles and in squares;
We fly ev'ry-where.
La la la

(23. Nov. 81)

We're going to perform selected songs

from “Sad Secrets” (1981/82) for piano and voice

“London” (1992) and

“Celtic Lullaby” (1984)

by C. Newman.

These pieces were written for performing human beings, rather than instrument-specific musicians. (C.N.)
